Idea #1

Title: Not another backrooms game

Genre: Survival horror

Core Fantasy:

- Players are trapped in a labyrinth of liminal aesthetic-like rooms (backrooms) where the only way forward is through exploration and survival.

Core Loop:

- Explore procedurally generated rooms.
- Survive hazards and/or resource drain while avoiding an AI pursuer.
- Progress by finding exits, with different experience each attempt

Must-have:

Time line: 2 months. Starting Oct 1.

1. Start & Pause Screens (1 week)

- ☒ Play
- ☒ Settings/Controls
- ☒ Exit

Music

- ☐ Eerie menu/in-game music

Pause Menu

- ☒ Resume
- ☒ Quit

2. First-person controller (1 week)

- ☒ Movement

- ☐ Camera clarity
- ☐ Interaction

Minimal HUD (.5 week)

- ☒ Health bar
- ☒ Stamina bar

3. Map Design (5.5 weeks)

Explorable Map, *Procedural generated rooms with connectors (4 weeks)

- ☐ Manual Randomization of floor levels
 - ☐ 1-2 floors (office liminal first)
 - 4-5 different “normal” non-interactive room variations to walk through
 - 2-3 different “interactable” rooms
 - i.e. pitfalls, button rooms, water-valves, *key-rooms
 - ☐ Backrooms aesthetic

One or Two hazards (1.5 weeks)

- ☐ 1. Pitfalls
- ☐ 2. Resource depletion → must-haves (stamina bar)
- ☐ 3. AI enemy wander/chase

4. Additional (time permitting)

- ☐ Unique room variants (individualized rooms)
 - ☐ Distorting rooms where reaching certain flag point rooms get rearranged for added challenge

Nice-to-have:

- ☐ Animation for interaction
- ☐ Extra UI
 - ☐ Sanity bar (Increase monster move-speed)
 - ☐ Inventory
- ☐ Enemy variants
 - ☐ Hearing-based aggro (proximity audio)
 - ☐ Adaptive AI learning player patterns
- ☐ Comedic aspects
- ☐ Hidden lore or story aspects
- ☐ Roguelike capabilities
 - ☐ Upgrades found around the level
 - ☐ Upgrades dropped defeating enemies
 - ☐ More challenges to counter enemies
- ☐ Eldenring boss

- ☐ Quick time event scene
- ☐ Only up room
- ☐ Multiplayer capabilities
